APPENDIX AND NOTES

Batty grouped tokens by location and subject or issuer, in that order whenever possible. This index follows his pattern but also attempts to index and cross index the locations, subjects, issuers and, where these are lacking, legends, devices and designs. Because of the impracticability of carrying this to its ultimate extreme some detailed listings were not attempted.

The following may therefore be useful to a user who does not know a specimen's place of origin or its issuer and does not find reference in the index to subject, legend, device or design:
